

not. It is easy to wander around with pieces of paper and get signatures as everybody knows. Okay, so that is the correction. Now the motion is to kill the bill. So if you want a new property tax and a new taxing agency and a new government program, you vote red. If you want to stop a new property tax and stop a new government agency and stop government expansion you vote green.

PRESIDENT: Senator Frank Lewis, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: A question for Senator John DeCamp.

PRESIDENT: The debate has already ceased, Senator.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: It is a substantive question. I think it is important...

PRESIDENT: So would you please put it in writing and submit it to the Chair for my determination.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I could just say it to the Chair, and save us both time.

PRESIDENT: No. Senator Simon, for what purpose do you ask recognition? Senator Boughn. Have you received an appropriate answer, Senator Lewis? May we now vote? The question is, shall LB 29 be indefinitely postponed? Record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk. Yes, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, in view of the fact that this is our first new tax we get to vote on, I ask for a Call of the House and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator DeCamp, that was well put. The question is, shall the House go under Call? Record your vote. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 22 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: We are not under Call. Call the roll.

CLERK: Roll call vote taken. (See page 380, Journal.) 22 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The bill is not killed. Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, I rise to support the bill. To clear up some of the discussion in previous arguments as it related to teachers, I just had somebody in my district call me about the number of lawyers in Congress and the mess that is there, and if we will clean up one place, we will talk about the other later. The bill is a simple bill. I am willing, and I know Senator Maresh is willing, to compromise it down to resolve some of the problems in some of the small communities. I, for one, know that we have no desire nor no inclination to ever do this in Sarpy County. The real purpose of the bill, and that is why the voting amazed me, was to attempt to help the small rural villages in an attempt to have a community center, in an attempt to do those things they want to. Now Senator Maresh has had the bill before us.
